

With the unpredictable traffic around the DC area, the traffic service on XM has become invaluable. Every morning, within seconds, I can plan my route to work. The XM traffic report is extremely thorough and easy to understand. I am paying for this service, and would be quite upset if it were to be taken away.